"Trust in the LORD with all your heart
and lean not on your own understandings. In all your ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3: 5-6

- Campus Life 4 - Activities 18 -

- People 90 - Closing 120 -

We have come from all directions to meet here at Tennessee Wesleyan College. Our fellow students as well as faculty and staff have become our family, and the campus our home. Our moments here are brief, but we will remember the time shared at Tennessee Wesleyan College for the rest of our lives. We have been molded and shaped by the things we have experienced and the people with whom we have walked, lived, and learned daily. For some, a career or calling discovered here has changed the direction of one's life. For others, one's faith and understandings have been formed. Regardless of the experience, we will all leave this campus different than when we arrived. As students and graduates of Tennessee Wesleyan we stand with those who have known this college as home in years before us. We have come to seek light and truth, we have been blessed to find those treasures- not just in the classroom, but in the lives of those professors and fellow students who have changed our lives forever. We continue to walk in the direction that God has called us, but we do so with renewed purpose, support, and strength found only at Tennessee Wesleyan College.

You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Psalms 16:11

Jesus answered, " I am the way the truth and the life.

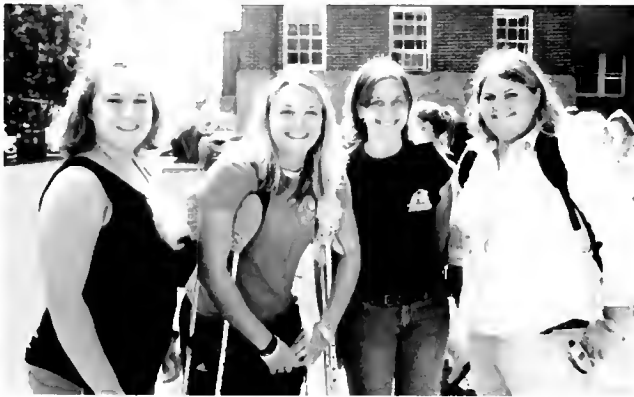

No one comes to the Father except through me." John 14:6

Dr. Steve Condon and his wife Becky along with their dog Maggie joined our campus this past year and have quickly become a part of the Tennessee Wesleyan College family. Dr. Condon has worked tirelessly to move the college forward in all areas. He has helped to inspire and carry out many campus improvements. Dr. Condon has also “dreamed big” for the campus’ future with new building projects and plans for growth. He has quickly tapped into the heart of TWC and has spent time getting to know the unique personality of our campus. The Condons are a wonderful asset to TWC, and we look forward to seeing where Dr. Condon will lead TWC in the years to come.

FORGOTTEN BEAUTY
BY: JEFF BARNES

"MOST PEOPLE NEVER TAKE THE TIME TO WATCH THE SUNRISE;
I WROTE THIS ONCE AFTER I'D WATCHED THE SUNRISE OVER THE MOUNTAIN

FOR QUITE SOME TIME I'VE WITNESSED THIS CHANGE,
THE PAST HAS NOW GONE
SO I WELCOME THE DAY.

IT'S AS BEAUTIFUL A SIGHT
AS A BABY; NEWBORN.

NOW COME THE FIRST MOMENTS,
OF A NEW DAY, A NEW MORN.

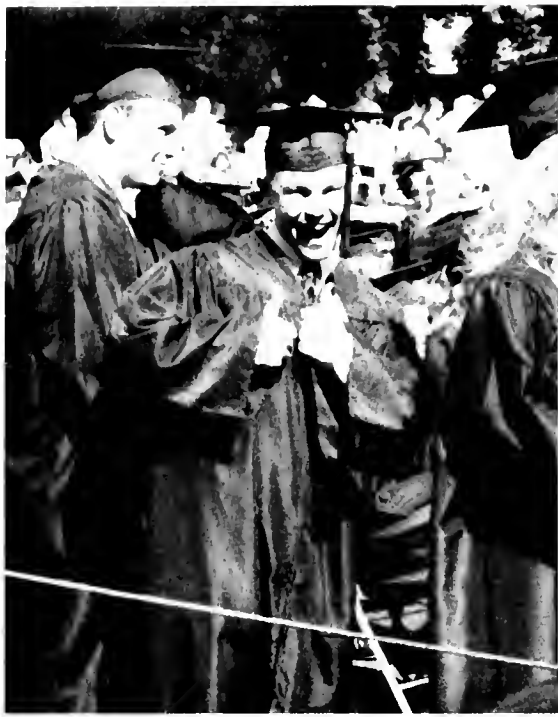

THE FACE OF THE EARTH LIES IN ITS WAKE
 AS IT CREEPS EVER SO SLOWLY,
 NOW COMES THE NEW DAY.

AN OVERLOOKED BEAUTY, A TRUE TREASURE SO BOLD,
 THE SUN IS TO EARTH, AS AGE IS TO OLD.

IT IS A SMALL GLIMPSE OF HEAVEN
 WHERE ONE DAY I WILL GO.

SO I SIT HERE SO QUIET, IN AWE AND LOVE
 INSPIRED BY THE MAKER,
 MY GOD UP ABOVE.

Graduation

Our paths diverged here at Tennessee Wesleyan College for a time, and now our paths change directions once again. Graduates are now pursuing careers and dreams, while those returning to TWC redirect themselves to fill the leadership roles left vacant by those who have moved on. The rhythm of our campus continues with each passing year. TWC has survived hardship and has thrived in the victory of its students. In 2005-2006 we have seen our campus shift directions. We are seeking lofty goals as a College and as a student body. Tennessee Wesleyan College directs students to a stronger faith and a deeper base of knowledge. Then, after students have been equipped, they are sent forth into the world to walk in every direction imaginable. Though students follow their own path, the path behind them still leads back to TWC. No matter how many miles separate us from our campus, we will never be too far to return. If we keep our eyes on God and keep each other in our hearts, we will always know the direction that leads us "home" to Tennessee Wesleyan College.

Show me your ways, O LORD, teach me your paths; guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long.

Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

1 Corinthians 15: 58

Editors Note

My ultimate goal for this book is that it would speak of the love of Christ and the love of the community of Tennessee Wesleyan College. Both have provided direction in my life. Christ provides the ultimate path and purpose for me. What a gift of love and salvation that he has for each of us. I also want to capture the love and gift of this family of TWC. The community strength that is present here is such a blessing. Whether it is a faculty member personally returning a phone call or one allowing you to move a mid-term due to hardships, love and understanding are present. I am proud to be a part of a community that is so supportive and full of love. I am proud to be a part of TWC.

On a personal note, I'd like to thank my family and friends who have stood by and supported me along the way. I am truly blessed and encouraged to have all of you behind me. I'd also like to show my gratitude to the yearbook staff who have worked so hard and kept me in line. The book would not have been possible without their hard work. My thanks also go out to Dr. Bereh and Nicole Gibbs for taking an interest in yearbook and helping it to become a success. You both are great!

As you read this book, I pray you seek the Lord and take in all of his love, mercy, grace, and forgiveness (even when things don't make sense). He is the way, the truth, and the life. (John 14:16) Ashley Snyder
